Knowledge Management and Narratives

Organizational Effectiveness Through Storytelling

Edited by
Georg Schreyögg
Jochen Koch

With articles by
Jean Caussanel, Con Connell,
Stephen Denning, Willemijn Dicke, Rik van Duifhuizen,
Christine Erlach, Daniel Geiger, Edeltraud Hanappi-Egger,
Roswitha Hofmann, Jonathan H. Klein, Jochen Koch,
Edgar Meyer, Piers Myers, Gary R. Oliver, Martin Parker,
Georg Schreyögg, David J. Snowden, Eddie Soulier,
Karin Thier, Barbara Torell
Table of Contents

Preface ....................................................................................................................................................... V

Georg Schreyögg/Jochen Koch: Linking Organizational Narratives and Knowledge Management: An Introduction ................................................................. 1

Part 1: Storytelling in Organizations

Gary R. Oliver/David J. Snowden: Patterns of Narrative in Organizational Knowledge Sharing: Refolding the Envelope of Art-Luddism and Techno-Fabulism............... 15

Stephen Denning: Stories that Tame the Grapevine ................................................................. 73

Part 2: Storytelling and Knowledge Transfer

Karin Thier/Christine Erlach: The Transfer of Tacit Knowledge with the Method “Story Telling” ................................................................................................. 123

Part 3: The Structure of Narratives

Jochen Koch: Reflecting on Complexity: Knowledge, Narratives and Aesthetic Experience .............................................................................................................. 145

Jean Caussanel/Eddie Soulier: HyperStoria: Acquiring, Representing, Understanding and Sharing Experiences Through Narration........................................ 173

Part 4: The Tacit Dimension of Organizational Narratives

Daniel Geiger: The Dark Side of Narrations: Narrations as Paradox Genres ........ 195

Edeltraud Hanappi-Egger/Roswitha Hofmann: Narratives, Gender and Organizations .............................................................................................................................. 215

Piers Myers: Unlabelled Metaphor and the Knowledge-Narrative Link in Organizations .................................................................................................................. 229
Part 5: Sensemaking Through Narratives

Barbara Torell: The Role of Narration in High Stakes Decision Making: “Translating Knowing into Telling” ................................................................. 247

Willemijn Dicke/Rik van Duijnhuizen/Martin Parker: “Thou Shalt Not Obey Me”: The Dynamic Ambiguity in Narratives of Managerial Empowerment ............ 273

Part 6: Reframing the Knowledge-Narrative Link

Georg Schreyögg/Daniel Geiger: Reconsidering Organizational Knowledge: Knowledge, Skills, and Narrations ............................................................ 291

About the authors ..................................................................................................... 313